Deacon Zagorski to Deliver Homily on July 11; Reception to Following Mass

Newly ordained Deacon Joe Zagorski will deliver the homily on Sunday July 11 at 10:30 am Mass. The Mass will be lived-streamed on FaceBook. There will be a reception in the Gathering Space after Mass.

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday July 5 for Independence Day

PRAY 4 AN END 2 ABORTION!

From the Desk Of Fr. John

Happy Fourth! On July 2 the Continental Congress voted to declare the colonies 'independent' of the British Crown and the oppressive governance of King George. Some claim that was the real day of independence… but others wanted to remember July 4th when the real document was signed. The struggles that preceded that vote…and all that would follow in a long war of independence is celebrated on our July 4th National Holiday (the 5th is the observance since the 4th falls on Sunday).

Time seems to be going so fast…and here we are at the great summer celebration of our nations' birthday. We need to stop and reflect over what has happened over this past year…and offer our prayers for our nation.

With the terrible Pandemic causing so much heartache and loss…we need to care for all of those who are going through all the grief that was caused. But…we also need to thank the Lord for the 'miracle' vaccine that has saved so many lives…and given us more freedom to return to a 'new normal.

We also need to realize the other threats to the safety and security of our nation…especially because of the political tensions that hold us back from greater cooperation and unity. The other tensions caused by conspiracy theories… race issues…voting rights…have caused much in dividing us from one another. The issues are great and centrally important. We need the help and guidance of the Holy Spirit to work for justice and embrace peace…in love of nation and one another.

July Thursdays…are set aside for a children's Mass at 10 am…followed by some fun activities and snacks. The morning of prayer and fun will conclude by noon (12 PM). Alert one another, invite your friends…, and keep in touch. There is a commercial that has a child's voice singing… 'The more we get together… together…together…the more we get together… the happier we'll be…'

Feast of Ss. Peter & Paul was held last weekend. It gave us a chance to reflect on the foundations of our faith and the life of the Church. We began with the Gospel lesson from Matthew recounting the journey of Jesus and his disciples to the northern town of Caesarea Philippi in Gentile territory. It was not known for its high morals or high standards…many different beliefs…practices of…well many corruptible behaviors and temptations.

But…Jesus chose that very place to ask several crucial questions…and allow the revelation of His true nature…mission…and future saving passion and death. He also elicited from His disciples…Peter is the one who first and clearly states it…that Jesus is the Christ…the Son of the Living God. With that, Jesus imparts a blessing upon Peter…calling him the 'Rock' upon which He (Jesus) will build the Church. Jesus also blesses Him with a great responsibility…entrusting to Him the 'keys of the kingdom'…the one who would open the door of that kingdom to others.

Peter & Paul received revelation about Christ and shared it with the world. We are called to that same mission…in our homes…with our spouses and children…our families, friends and all others.

Now we move back to the Ordinary Time Sundays…this one is the Fourteenth Sunday. We go with Jesus and His disciples to His 'native place' and to the synagogue where He began to teach them. At first, they are 'astonished' by what and how He is teaching… but that begins to turn sour. They question and eventually reject Him…because they think they know His background and family. Look at the contrast with last Sunday…and the faith in Jesus so clearly stated by St. Peter…and shared with us. Are we too familiar with Jesus…do we take him for granted…or can we clearly state our faith and help them believe?

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER AND ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT for world peace, our nation, church, family, and many other intentions.

1 -1 :30 pm on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of every month. Contact Eileen Welle at 540-8773 for further details.

Looking for Wedding Pictures

Since we were not able to display our parish wedding pictures last year, we have displayed the pictures of those who were married in years ending with 0 and 5 recognizing last year's milestones. Also we have on display the couples married in the year ending in 1 and 6.

In August, we hope to be able to showcase all the parish wedding pictures as in the past. If you were married here or you are a member of Ss. Peter & Paul ,we would love to have your picture. It is best if you can bring an 8x10 picture to the office so we can scan it and return to you. We can make the copies on Mon-Wed-Fri. If you have any questions please contact Lynn at the parish office lmuniz@saintspeter-paul.org or 803-4431 (direct line).

Join Us to pray for our world in the midst of the Pandemic!
